

STATE OF INDIANA – COUNTY OF VANDERBURGH IN THE VANDERBURGH CIRCUIT AND SUPERIOR COURTS

Notice of Proposed New Local Rule
March 18, 2015

The judges of the Vanderburgh Circuit and Superior Courts, pursuant to Trial Rule 81(B), give notice of a proposed new rule to the Vanderburgh Civil Rules at LR82-TR73 Rule 1.24. We find good cause to deviate from the schedule for amending local court rules under Trial Rule 81 (D).

A copy of the proposed new rule is available in the William H. Miller Law Library, Room 207 Courts Building, Civic Center Complex, the Vanderburgh County Clerk's Office, and the Evansville Bar Association. In addition a copy has been furnished to the officers of the Vanderburgh County Bar Association.

Comments may be made until April 20, 2015 to: Krista Weiberg, Court Administrator, Civic Center Complex, Room 114, 825 Sycamore Street, Evansville, IN 47708 or by email to: khamby@vanderburghgov.org.

The new rule on Telephonic Conferences will be effective on May 4, 2015.

DATED this 18th day of March, 2015 on behalf of the Judges of Vanderburgh County Circuit and Superior Courts.

LR82-TR73 Rule 1.24. TELEPHONIC CONFERENCE

Argument on substantive motions and attendance at final pre-trial conferences shall be held in person and not telephonically. However, for good cause shown, the Court, on its motion or at a party's request, may direct argument of any motion and attendance at any conference to be by telephone conference.
